

How to Change Settings

To change your settings first go to your email in the top right hand corner and click on it.

After you have clicked on your email it will show a drop down menu like this click on settings.

When you get to the settings page you can see your basic account info. Scroll down the page and you will see the explicit content filter. Underneath this you can choose to allow explicit content or not allow.

A screenshot of the Pandora 'Basic account info' settings page. On the left is a sidebar with links: 'Account' (highlighted), 'Privacy', 'Notices', 'Upgrade', 'Audio Quality', and 'Install Desktop App'. The main content area is titled 'Basic account info' and contains several form fields: 'Your email' (mrgleysteen@bluevalleyk12.ne), 'Password' (masked with dots), 'Birth year' (1997), 'Postal/ zip code' (66062), and 'Gender' (radio buttons for Male and Female, with Female selected). Below these fields is a section titled 'Explicit content filter' which is circled in red. This section asks 'Should Pandora allow explicit content on your stations?' and has two radio button options: 'Yes. Allow explicit content.' (selected) and 'No. Do not allow explicit content.'. A red arrow points from the text in the previous block to the 'Yes' option. At the bottom of the form is a 'Save changes' button.
